

Film Production

At www.david-osullivan.co.uk we offer a broad range of production services to suit the needs of your organisation and your budget.

From polished drama productions to reportage style news reports our team can organise shoot and edit whatever you require- and offer you lots of helpful advice too!

Whats more, because we are also a web design company, our involvement doesn't stop there. We will ensure that your finished video is ready for distribution over the internet, whether off your own webpages, or, if you are expecting alot of interest, from your own dedicated streaming server.
